

Magpies
OF STONY

Longago

a Magpie came to Stony Plain to watch
all the peoples of the area. He became fascinated by all of the strange things that he saw and would often take treasures to show off to the clan, especially the small shiny things that sparkled in the sunlight. The clan loved all of the treasures that the Storyteller found and decided to move to Stony Plain during the warm months of summer.

I am the Storyteller. I am perched atop a piece of art that overlooks the entrance to Stony Plain. Some say the creek that runs through here looks like a dog's rump.

I found a yummy nut and
took it to my perch near the hardware
merchant's
house.

I was so proud
to show him
that I danced
and threw my
tail feathers in the air!

He laughed and told me that it was the wrong type of nut.

My favourite things are long and shiny, you wear them around your neck. I've made my home atop a tree where I spend my days overlooking local decision makers twittering away, just like us.
