MURALS

stonyplain.com/murals

ART IN PUBLIC PLACES

Our breathtaking murals, designed by artists from across Canada, illustrate our community's rich story. These outdoor paintings can be found on more than 40 walls around town. If you only have a few hours, explore the murals within the downtown core. If you have more time, and a bicycle or vehicle, be sure to check out all of the murals within Stony Plain.

Art in public places encourages creative expression and promotes cultural conversations. As part of the Art in Public Places Policy, the Town regularly funds new public art projects that complement Stony Plain's natural beauty. A visit to Stony Plain isn't complete without viewing some of our most well-known public art pieces.

SCAN FOR MURAL GUIDE

Sheriff Umbach Statue

The statue of Sheriff Israel Umbach, Stony Plain's first sheriff and overseer, can be viewed at Rotary Park. He is known for forcing the Canadian Northern Railway to pay their outstanding taxes by chaining a locomotive to the tracks.

Town Hall Statues

In 2008, two Centennial statues entitled "Story Time" and "Golden Years" were installed in honour of Stony Plain's 100th Anniversary. The two statues can be viewed in front of Town Hall.

Trifecta

Stony Plain's first public art bench is a combination of poured solid concrete and hand carved concrete rocks. The heaviness of the work conveys a sense of grounding while users are enjoying the outdoors in Oatway Park.

Enduring Connections

Forged from iron and horseshoes this piece was created using centuries old blacksmithing techniques. The work can be viewed at Heritage Park and represents the many important relationships the Town of Stony Plain holds with the community.

Disc Drumming

Located at Rotary Park, this sculpture is composed of eleven steel agricultural disc harrows welded on an elliptical frame. Each harrow reverberates with a different bell like tone when played.

Poetry Panels

In 2020, poetry panels representing the four seasons were added to the gazebo in Rotary Park.

EVENTS

There are a variety of family-friendly celebrations in Stony Plain. Our rich cultural and traditional events are filled with music, history, and kid-friendly fun. Most of our events are held in the summer, making Stony Plain a must-visit summer vacation hot spot.

Carter & the Capitals with special guest Todd Wandio

JUNE 19

There's no stopping the dynamic, high energy five-piece funk group, Carter & the Capitals. Hailing from Edmonton, AB, they are known for their energetic performances and infectious Canadian funk and soul music. They've supported acts like Village People, Busty & The Bass, and Five Alarm Funk, while consistently selling out their own headline shows.

Russell deCarle with special guest Megan Paige

JUNE 26

Russell deCarle, lead vocalist of Prairie Oyster, boasts numerous awards from his "Oyster years" including six Junos and over a dozen Canadian Country Music Awards. His solo album "Alone in this Crowd" blends southern soul, jazz, blues, old-school country, and western swing.

Payphones with special guest Kevin Frey

JULY 3

Payphones, an alt-folk band from Edmonton, AB, captivates audiences with intricate vocal harmonies, lively acoustic accompaniment, and poignant, nostalgic lyrics. Their debut album "Rioting Heart" delves into themes of queer heartbreak, isolation, and personal growth. Now, they're releasing a new single, "Happy Here," expanding their lush sound to connect with new listeners.

Whale & the Wolf with special guest Chris Arnold

JULY 10

Much like their name, Whale and the Wolf's unique sound is sonically immense and wildly fierce in its energetic intensity. Known for their dynamic and explosive stage performances, this is a band you need to experience live. Unapologetically authentic with a generous helping of playfulness, they're audacious yet accessible. Their lyrical explorations draw from real life experience and personal struggles expressed with their own unique brand of honesty.

Ollee Owens with special guest Ellie

JULY 17

With a lyrical mastery that speaks on all of life's moments paired with a dynamic voice, Canadian based Blues/Soul/Rock artist, Ollee Owens is a musical force of nature. Combining burning vocal intensity with elegant grace and skilled composure wrapped in an electrifying blues-soul-rock veneer, the result is an unforgettable emotionally charged experience that lingers long after the last note. Owens is currently working between Calgary and Nashville on her most recent project with new singles due to be released in 2024.

The Red Cannons with special guest Mike Trudell

JULY 24

Canadian recording artists, The Red Cannons, broke onto the national music scene with two singles, "Underneath the Floorboards," a track inspired by The Telltale Heart by Edgar Allan Poe and "Sheepdog", which garnered rotation on numerous radio stations across Canada and built their reputation on the catchy melodies and mainstream style of their blues-rock influenced, hook laden songs. The band catapulted into the spotlight with a feature in Classic Rock Magazine in the United Kingdom and were nominated for Group of the Year and Rock Recording of the Year at the 2014 and 2015 Edmonton Music Awards.

Shady Mavis with special guest Mike Chenoweth

JULY 31

Shady Mavis is an acoustic music trio that plays a variety of tasty tunes, from the rootsy side to folk, country and bluegrass. They have crafted numerous original songs as well as carefully chosen covers that they put their own spin on. They truly enjoy what they are doing and are focused on combining sweet vocal harmonies with the genuine love for playing music. They have also played many festivals throughout the province, as well as clubs and private functions. Shady Mavis is Don Gammie on guitar, Elaine Somerfield on bass and John Whittington on guitar and mandolin.

Kaeley Jade with special guest Stephane Drisdelle

AUGUST 7

Kaeley Jade is an award-winning Métis singer/songwriter, actor, and multidisciplinary artist based in Edmonton, AB (amiskwaciwâskahikan). Blending lush imagery and hooky melodic lines to create her own brand of pop-forward indie folk music, her debut full-length album, Turpentine, is available now.

The Songwriters (Duane Steele, Jake Mathews, & Phillip White) with special guest Tracey Fetter

AUGUST 14

A collective of songwriters, Duane Steele, Jake Mathews, and Phillip White, come together for an evening of good vibes and great tunes. Steele, a top Canadian country artist since 1984, delivers unforgettable live performances with his pure voice and captivating stage presence. Mathews, with numerous top 20 hits, has captured the hearts of country music fans, earning him numerous Canadian Country Music Award nominations. White, an Academy of Country Music award-winning and Grammy nominated songwriter and producer, boasts a stellar track record with songs recorded by industry giants like George Strait, Luke Bryan, and Blake Shelton.
